Rebel Rumors.

By Cable and Associated Press.
Chilian agents in this city who represent the congressional or insurgent party, declare the arrangements are made between the congressional party and the United States authorities, by which the insurgent steamer, Itata, which is now being chased down on the west coast of America by the United States warship, Charleston, is not to be seized by force by the Charleston or by any other vessel of the American navy. By the terms of this arrangement, the fugitives here state that the fugitive craft will be handed over by Chilian insurgents to the United States authorities pending a settlement of the question in dispute as to whether or not the Itata violated the neutrality laws. This action, they added, will be taken without prejudice to the congressional party, in so much as the Itata has enough start of the Charleston to enable her to reach a port in possession of the congressional party and to unload there before she surrenders to the United States.

Presbyterians in Council.

By Associated Press.
DENVER, May 21.—The 103 annual meeting of the Presbyterian General Assembly convened here this morning. Rev. Dr. Radcliffe of Detroit invoked a divine blessing. After singing, Rev. Dr. Patton, President of Princeton, read the 16th chapter of Isaiah. Rev. Dr. Moore of Cincinnati, moderator of the last assembly delivered the opening assembly sermon from John 3, 17, "For God sent not his son into the world to condemn the world but that the world through him might be saved." After prayer by Dr. Moore the organization of the assembly was perfected; the committee on arrangements reported and the assembly took a recess until this evening.

Dr. Green, of Princeton, was elected Moderator by acclamation at the opening of the afternoon session of the General Assembly.

The Chili Rebellion.

By Associated Press.
CITY OF MEXICO (via Galveston), May 21.—From advices received here from Chilli and from information derived from an Italian actor who has arrived here from there, it appears the news published in the United States and Europe about the revolution causes much laughter, as many so-called insurgent victories are myths. The actor believes difficulties will soon arise between Chilli and Peru. The latter country, he says, is fostering the revolution and a large amount of English gold comes from there for the revolutionists.

Quaker City Bank.

By Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—A statement of the condition of the Pennsylvania Safe Deposit & Trust Company which recently assigned, shows an apparent deficit of $97,000 between assets and liabilities.

Francis M. Kennedy, President, and Henry H. Kennedy, Cashier of the suspended Spring Garden National Bank have been arrested on a warrant sworn out by a depositor of the bank, charging them with receiving deposits when they knew the bank was insolvent.

Blaine's Condition.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, May 21.—Secretary Blaine rested comfortably last night and this morning was somewhat easier. If the weather permits in a day or two he will be taken out for a drive and if strong enough will go to Maine.

Weather Report.

Special to the GAZETTE.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Forecast, light rains in Western Nevada and Southern California.

Latest from Chilli.

By Associated Press.
IQUIQUE (via Galveston), May 21.—The United States warship Pensacola arrived yesterday.

Itata Gossip.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 21.—The Paris dispatch, stating the Itata is to be surrendered to the United States by the insurgents upon her arrival in Chilli was shown the officials of the Navy and State departments to-day, but one and all declined to discuss the matter publicly. Nevertheless it can be stated positively that there have been no negotiations as reported by the insurgents in France or elsewhere with this government respecting the Itata. There is reason to believe that this government expects the Itata to be peacefully surrendered to the United States by the insurgents when she reaches Chilli, but that when she is so surrendered the vessel will be found to have discharged her arms and munitions of war. The object of libeling the ship in California was to determine whether she violated the neutrality laws. If she stands trial on that charge the status of the insurgents must be judicially determined as a preliminary. If it is held that they are belligerents, the insurgents will have realized substantial advantages, and all they risk is the loss by forfeiture of the empty vessel.

Missouri Cyclone.

By Associated Press.
CENTRALIA (Mo.), May 21.—A cyclone near here yesterday passed a mile north of this place. By it a number of dwellings were totally destroyed and many persons injured, some fatally. Barns and fences were swept away, chickens, hogs and stock killed in large numbers. A horse belonging to Joseph Tucker was carried a quarter of a mile. John F. Harrison and family, wife and eight children, were all more or less injured. A child ten years of age was carried half a mile, and four sticks had been driven through its left arm. Another child had its right leg broken in three places. Mrs. Richardson is seriously hurt and H. C. Hunt of Centralia reported fatally injured.

Railway Conductors.

By Associated Press.
ST. LOUIS, May 21.—It is a very significant fact that while the Order of Railway Conductors decided to federate, the convention took no step looking to the accomplishment of that question, as no application had been made. The order, it is stated, seeks to become members without making application, so that if they should at any time become dissatisfied with the federation they can withdraw and say the officers had no right to federate. The officers declined to discuss the matter.

Hatch on Canneries.

Special to the GAZETTE.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—A. T. Hatch, the well-known horticulturist, said to-day the fruit-growers were in no wise menaced by the recent consolidation of canneries; that the new combine was formed simply to conduct the canning industry on business principles, and that as far as the growers are concerned, they are independent of the canners, as they could resort to drying their fruit in case of necessity.

Kansas Cyclone.

By Associated Press.
EMPORIA (Kan.), May 21.—A terrific wind and rain storm visited this city and vicinity late last evening. A great deal of damage was done to crops, buildings and fences. A house, occupied by R. L. Dain, was completely demolished, and one of his daughters fatally injured and another seriously hurt.

Poisoned by Sturgeon.

By Associated Press.
PITTSBURG, May 21.—Henry Brose of Etina, and Thomas O'Rourke of this city, died yesterday from the effects of eating smoked sturgeon that poisoned more or less seriously 5,000 people in this city and vicinity. The authorities have taken hold of the matter and a most rigid investigation will be made.

Horrible Hanging.

By Cable and Associated Press.
BELLVILLE (Out.), May 21.—James Kane was executed here this morning for the murder of his wife, Elizabeth. The drop fell at 8:19, but Kane's neck was not broken and he slowly strangled to death. His groans were horrible.

Crop Prospects.

Special to the GAZETTE.
SANTA MARIA (Cal.), May 21.—It rained heavily last night, but falling without wind it did no damage to the crops; weather is clear to-day with prospects for a good harvest.

Railway Agents.

By Associated Press.
DENVER, May 21.—The annual convention of the railway agents association is in session here. Delegates are present from every State in the Union, Canada and Mexico.

Steve Venard Dead.

Special to the GAZETTE.
NEVADA CITY, May 21.—Stephen Venard, famous as a hunter of highwaymen, died at the county hospital last night, after a lingering illness; aged 67 years. He came to Nevada City from Ohio in the early 50's and engaged in merchandising. Subsequently he mined and did police duty here, and was for a time engaged in cattle raising in the State of Nevada. On the morning of May 15th, 1866, the stage from North San Juan to this city was stopped a few miles from here by George Shanks, alias Jack Williams, Bob Finn alias Caton, and George W. Moore, who captured seven thousand nine hundred dollars. Venard, who participated in the chase a few hours later, came upon the highwaymen in one of the wildest and most inaccessible portions of the South Yuba canyon where they were dividing the spoils. An encounter ensued in which Venard, with his rifle, killed all three and escaped unhurt. Governor Low appointed him Lieutenant-Colonel on his staff for meritorious services in the field and Wells, Fargo's Express Company presented him with a valuable rifle.

Insurance Brokers Fall.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, May 21.—In this morning's papers the failure of the insurance brokerage firm of Satterlee, Bostwick & Martin is announced. From charges made by the most reputable underwriters of New York, and from statements of the president or resident managers of the greatest insurance corporation in the country, it appears that for nearly a year certain members of the firm have systematically misappropriated funds placed in their hands for payment to various corporations. Failure was inevitable in consequence of these transactions. The amount involved in the neglect to pay premiums and losses, which this firm collected as agents, reached nearly $150,000. But owing to sacrifices of property owned by the two elder members of the house, this sum has been lessened considerably. There are, however, still outstanding a number of obligations incurred over the methods which caused the ruin of the brokers, whose aggregate shows how loosely are conducted the transactions between the insurance companies and the brokers.

Davis Shoe Company.

By Associated Press.
BOSTON, May 21.—The Davis Shoe Company is reported to owe about $235,000 in open accounts, due for merchandise. The great bulk of the indebtedness is for notes yet to mature and contingent liabilities. No definite statement of the affairs will be given out until the meeting of the creditors on Monday next.

Postal Congress.

By Cable and Associated Press.
VIENNA, May 21.—The international Postal Congress opened here yesterday. The objects of the congress are described, viz: To establish a basis scheme for linking together the civilized tactics of the world in a single postal federation. Four committees were appointed to discuss preliminaries.

Strikers Weaken.

By Associated Press.
SCOTTSDALE (Pa.), May 21.—Everything to-day points to an early ending of the coke strike. The strikers are weakening and big breaks in their ranks are reported from various places in this region. The men being dissatisfied with the result of the Scottsdale convention last night, decided to go to work.

Railroad Shops Burned.

By Associated Press.
ALBANY (N. Y.), May 21.—Early this morning the shops and other buildings of the New York Central Railroad at West Albany were burned. Over a thousand men are thrown out of work.

It is estimated that the loss will reach $150,000.

Fire in Morpion.

By Associated Press.
HOUSTON (Tex.), May 21.—A fire which started last evening in a mill of the Phoenix Lumber Company swept five blocks of lumber yards and six blocks of residences, together with St. Patrick's Church. Losses aggregated at least $300,000; fully insured.

Missouri Storm.

By Associated Press.
MORLEY (Mo.), May 21.—A most destructive wind, rain and hail storm passed over this place yesterday, completely breaking down crops of every description and drowning small stock. It is believed the damage will reach $30,000.

Disastrous Fire.

By Associated Press.
MINNEAPOLIS, May 21.—A disastrous lumber yard fire has been burning since 3 o'clock this morning. Day & Co.'s stock of lumber is destroyed, but their mills were saved. Loss on lumber, $228,000; heavily insured.

Stocks Sagged.

Special to the GAZETTE.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Prices sagged a little on the early call this morning, Con. Cal. Virginia running down to $10 50. The Post says: "This was in the face of good news from the mine, confirmed by statements of Comstock superintendents who arrived in town this morning. It seems difficult to reconcile this fact, while every confidence is expressed in the merits of Con. Cal. Virginia. The great trouble at present is that the principal moneyed men on the street who have during the past lent their aid to raise the market, are tied up in such a manner they are powerless to turn one way or the other until prices advance considerably over the present quotations. Of course they can step down and out at heavy loss, but it is questionable if it would be well to force the issue to that. It is rather unusual to run across men of means who are actually on the anxious seat in regard to the speedy resuscitation of prices, but Pine street overflows with them at present."

Betting on the Fight.

Special to the GAZETTE.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Several dispatches were received this morning by prominent local sports instructing them to place money on Corbett for the senders if the betting reached two to one.

Ned Fay has a commission from a Nevada sport to bet $5,000 against $10,000 on Corbett.

A good deal of money was bet during the forenoon at the rate of 10 to 62½ against Corbett, and in some cases 100 to 60 was laid. At the latter rate Corbett money was clamorous, but few Jackson supporters were willing to concede such odds.

Sailors Short.

Special to the GAZETTE.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—The British steamer West Indian, which engaged in Pacific coast trade and which has been trying to get a crew for the past ten days, was boarded at Mission street wharf by a crowd of union sailors, who drove off six non-union sailors. Captain Scott and Mate Lock, attempted armed resistance, but were obliged to stop. Several people were injured by flying lumps of coal. Captain Scott said he would procure warrants for the arrest of all prominent members of the Coast Seaman Union from the secretary down.

Marsh Missing.

By Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—The hearing of President Marsh and ex-assistant cashier Lawrence, charged with falsifying the returns of the Keystone National Bank to the Comptroller of the Currency, was continued here this afternoon before the United States Commissioner. When Marsh's name was called, he did not answer and his counsel stated he did not know where Marsh was or whether he would be present or not, as he had not seen him since last Saturday.

Nathalie in Exile.

By Cable and Associated Press.
BUCHAREST, May 21.—Ex-Queen Nathalie has arrived at Galatz, whence she will go by rail to Jassy. At Semlin the ex-Queen's apartments were filled with flower tributes and a silver wreath was presented to her. Before boarding the steamer she kissed all the women who were near enough to her. Students kissed her hands and hair.

Lands for Entry.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 21.—President Harrison today issued a proclamation opening to public settlement about 1,600,000 acres of land in Fort Belk Indian Reservation, North Dakota.

Raum Resigns.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, May 21.—A Washington special to the Mail and Express says that Pension Commissioner Raum has tendered his resignation to the President, in the interest of harmony.

Taft Dead.

Special to the GAZETTE.
SAN DIEGO, May 21.—Ex-Minister Taft died at 4 o'clock this morning.

National Union.

By Associated Press.
CINCINNATI, May 21.—The Nationalists met this morning and adopted a resolution heartily endorsing the National Union Convention platform. Bright and early to-day the new National Executive Committee got together for its first meeting. Everybody but members of the committee were excluded. Robert Schilling of Milwaukee was elected Secretary and M. C. Rankin of Terre Haute, Treasurer. The members then busied themselves in filling out vacancies that had been left in the National Committee as a result of the rash that preceded the adjournment of the convention. The National Committee was presided over by Chairman Taubeneck.

It was resolved to authorize the issue of a call for voluntary contributions. Also resolved that a National Executive Committee be formed to consist of a Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer and four members. The four elected are George F. Washburn, Mass.; G. F. Gaither, Ala.; Ingatius Donnelly, Minn.; J. H. Davis, Texas. The committee adjourned subject to the call of the Executive Committee. This committee met immediately afterward and elected Robert Schilling Permanent Secretary, and M. C. Rankin Permanent Treasurer. Resolutions were adopted providing for the appointment of State, county and local committees of the people's party in each State for systematic organization and furtherance of the work; that the secretary of each committee shall, as soon as same is constituted, report the names of officers and members to Robert Schilling, Milwaukee. In the absence of the Executive Committee the chairman and secretary are given authority to organize a State or Territory, not represented at the Cincinnati convention by the appointment of a committee of three members who shall proceed to organize as in other States.

The Northern Pacific directors to-day declared a dividend of one per cent on preferred stock.

DEATH OF JOHN F. ALEXANDER.

He Passes Away At a Resort In Southern California On Tuesday.

G. W. Baker received this morning a letter from Mrs. R. H. Hickman dated Pervis, San Diego county, Cal., containing the sad news of the death of ex-Attorney General, John F. Alexander, who died at that place on the morning of May 19. The simple announcement of his death was the only particular the letter contained. His remains will most likely be interred there. One of the brightest intellects this State ever produced has been silenced by the death of John F. Alexander. He served this country two terms as District Attorney and the State one term as Attorney General. John graduated from the State University of California in the class of 1873 and returning home founded the GAZETTE in April, 1874, and ran it successfully until 1878 when it fell into the hands of R. L. Fulton, Mr. Alexander still remaining on the paper. In 1880 he married Miss Kate C. Benham and shortly after was admitted to the bar and took up the practice of law, a vocation that he followed until a few months ago, when he was cut down in the prime of his life and vigor by consumption and went to Southern California in the hope of regaining his health. John was a fellow with many noble impulses, of a genial nature and his sad ending will be greatly regretted by his many friends in this county and State. He leaves a wife, mother and sister, Mrs. Lake of this city, and a large circle of friends to mourn his untimely death.

There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union office for R. W. Martin and E. W. Olds.

Prof. H. F. Baker of Bellview, Idaho, formerly principal of the Virginia High School, paid the GAZETTE office a pleasant call this afternoon.

Nevada's Resources.

"It is a dirty bird that fouls its own nest," and what the object can be of certain newspapers and some individuals insisting that Nevada has no future, is too deep water for us to get into in an attempt to explain their position.

Emmerson says: "The creation of a thousand forests is in one acorn, and Egypt, Greece, Rome, Gaul, Britain and America lies folded in the first man."

If that be so, the advantages Nevada offers the discontempered of other States is bound to be taken advantage of, and the weak little squibs that frequently appear in our home newspapers cannot stop its ultimate growth and the prosperity that awaits the workers in life's busy hive. To claim that we have no markets and that an over production is bound to follow the colonization of the State, is as weak as it is silly. If fifty years ago the pioneers of Ohio, Illinois or Iowa had used that as an argument why those States should not become populous, they would at this age have been considered as not very far-sighted.

With a State abounding in most every known mineral, with mountains of iron, tin, gypsum and marble, with our hills full of undeveloped gold and silver, with thousands upon thousands of acres of rich, productive land, that has lain fallow for centuries and only needs the cunning hand of man to make it yield anything and everything that grows anywhere in the temperate zone, it is idle to talk about an over production, or to say that the State has no future. That Nevada has been the most unfortunate State in the Union there is but little chance to doubt.

The men who have controlled the silver mines have transported every dollar's worth of bullion the State has ever produced out of the country, and none of it has ever found its way back save and except the comparatively few dollars made necessary for the production of more. Not one single dollar of it has ever gone to build up any industry other than mining, but as fast as the hills have yielded up their hidden treasure, it has been converted into gold that has found its way into the channels of commerce in other sections of the United States whose streams do not flow through Nevada. If Nevada had a one-hundredth part of the wealth she has produced, to spend in reclamation, she would be more prosperous today than any other section of the country and would be supplying a large section of Uncle Sam's domain with the finest potatoes that grow, cabbage, onions, cauliflower, celery, fruit, berries, grains of all kinds, butter, cheese, beef, wool, mutton, and in fact everything that goes to make a State prosperous and a people happy. Where is there a section of country supporting six thousand people where all the children, little and big, wear shoes and stockings the year round and dress as they do in Washoe?

Where is there a section of the country where the farmers' families eat beef, cake and pies seven days in the week and their children attend school the year round? Where is there a section of the country where everybody goes as warmly and comfortably clad as they do here? Where is the location of six thousand people engaged in farming and merchandising with less business failures than are recorded in Washoe? You can visit the abattoirs in the State every day in the week and not find a single person begging for a liver or beef head. You may look to the right and left, to the north and to the south and find indications of prosperity and contentment; you may investigate our schools and find them as prosperous and well attended as any in the land. You may visit Douglas, Lyon, Esmeralda, Storey, Humboldt or Elko, and you will find the same condition of things prevalent in those counties. The fertile valleys lying north and contiguous to Reno are as yet sparsely settled, owing in a great measure to the "over production" theory advanced by some of our State exchanges, but with a railroad running into that country connecting with a transcontinental line whose feeders run to every sea port in America brings the markets of the world to their doors, that with favorable rates should enable them to ship out any "over production" that would follow the settlement of the country. As every producer brings a consumer it is idle to talk of over production.

REPORT ON IRRIGATION.

Very Dry Reading on a Watery Subject.

THE GAZETTE acknowledges the receipt of Hinton's Report on Irrigation in the United States, with the compliments of J. M. Rusk (Uncle Jerry), Secretary of Agriculture, but under Frank of Senator Stewart. It is in two volumes of about 300 pages each, and a glance at No. 1 shows that the consideration that is given to Nevada is embodied in two papers, one on the "Phreatic Waters of Nye County," by George Nichols, and the other on "Artesian Water in Nevada," by General C. W. Irish. The report is full of interesting information on the subject of irrigation, but is principally devoted to Nebraska and Kansas.

Last evening on the arrival of the V. & T. train from Carson, the usual crowd of hotel runners was on the platform soliciting for their hotels, and in their eagerness, crowded the car steps so closely that brakeman De Hart, who was assisting ladies to alight, had to request young Ki-leen to stand back. While De Hart was reaching his hand to assist a lady in stepping from the car, it is said that Ki-leen struck him. A disturbance resulted, but no arrests were made. This morning conductor McCormack swore out a warrant for the arrest of Ki-leen, charging the battery as stated.

A New Wagon.

Wells, Fargo & Co., have just received back from San Francisco their delivery wagon, bright in a new coat of paint and varnish. The bed is a deep marine blue, ornamented with gilded letters shaded in two colors of cherry red and black, and the running gear in crimson. Sam Slawson says it makes him feel as if he was in San Francisco when he mounts the box now, and he wants to stand on the corner and see himself go by.

Uncle John Gibbons.

The People's Advocate of Austin contains the following concerning the old pioneer stage driver: Well known to every old-timer in Lander county and largely all over the coast, is an inmate of the Elko county hospital. He is now a very aged man and broke down in health, the latter due to his many years of exposure on the boxes of Wells, Fargo & Co. and Clugge's stage coaches in Nevada and California.

A Crazy Man.

The Carson Tribune of last night says: The crazy man, mentioned in this paper some time ago as being on the rampage at Hawthorne, arrived in Carson from that place last evening. He imagines he owns the railroad. At the mound-house he discharged all the employees and was engaged in the same occupation at Carson, when the officers arrested him and took him to jail.

OUR CARSON LETTER.

Improvements at the Capital—Hall Road Ramona—The Mint—Indian Schools, etc.

CARSON, May 19th, 1891.

EDITOR GAZETTE: Now that the local choir and the Carson Band have ceased singing and playing "Bonnie Annie Laurie," and the beautiful snow has suspended, temporarily, its whirl and skurrying around the corners and about the heels of the pedestrian as he saunters about the streets of the capital, and the trees have put on a dress consistent with the season, the garden filled with flowers and sparkling emerald lawns, perhaps your readers would like to know something of our "goings-on" here. Carson is looking its loveliest now, and after the monotony of a long winter, begins to awake with a new life. Streets are being cleaned up, paint, whitewash, etc. are in demand, some new buildings are in course of construction and others contemplated. The outlook for a prosperous summer is flattering, and at once is creditable to Carson, as well as contradicts the statement that she is a dying camp. The merry woodmen are striking out for the mountains, and Keyser's daily stage for Tahoe often leaves, loaded to the guards, in two or three sections. Billy Blackmore pulling the six-purloons over one of the teams, looking as young and dapper as in the "sixties," when he chuckled some blushing maiden under the chin at a wayside station and passed some compliment as to her good looks or appearance, said maidens, many of whom are now grandmothers, while old Billy cracks his whip as cheerily as in "days of yore."

THE PROPOSED BUILDINGS.

Are a new pavilion for the Agricultural Association, some private residences and a new store or two. Archie Baker, one of Carson's liveliest merchants, has purchased a corner opposite the Mint and will erect a fine store building and enlarge his business. A new parsonage will be built for the Episcopal minister besides others of lesser note. The new government building has been renovated, curtains hung at the windows, the big clock wound up, and U. S. officials and court are moving in, preparatory to opening up on the 1st of the coming month, at which time the Post-office will remove and the building will be in full blast for business.

The Capitol grounds and those of the Orphans' Home have been put in prime shape and present a fine appearance. Sam Davis has planted a host of trees on either side of the avenue leading to his home, the "Holstein ranch," and intends to make it one of the prettiest promenades in the country, with rustic seats and bowers for lovers, gravel walks, and all that goes to make life a pleasant dream. Sam is quite romantic you know, and since Bernhardt sent him one of her large photos and her autograph with a line of French poetry, that he is afraid to have translated, he has a kind of dreamy far away look, and his eyes roll up very much like those of one of his Holstein calves, when in the throes of death from an overdose of alfalfa. In fact, on every hand can be seen examples denoting energy and prosperity, and before the season is closed Carson will have many improvements not only pleasing to the eye, but in point of health, will add much to the town and make her a fair competitor with any town in the country. Carson also has greater aspirations, and is willing to have direct communication with tidewater by a railroad system of her own and rise to the dignity of a distributing point on a through line, and while there is speculation and rumor of transcontinental lines to the north and south, she has her rumor and it is a very plausible and practicable one too. Of course it is not settled, nor will the proposed railway be built this spring, but it is not improbable that sometime in the near future there will be a RAILROAD SYSTEM.

From Utah to California via Carson, Lake Tahoe, Placerville, thence to some point near Oakland as a terminus, and with such men as H. M. Yerrington, D. A. Bender, D. L. Bliss, Evan Williams, S. C. Wright, Jake Klien and others, such a project is not impossible; and a great farming and timber country would be opened up, besides the road would tap one of the greatest fruit districts of California. The V. & T. and C. & C. roads would be a part of the system, besides the Tahoe road, which are already built. The V. & T. could extend its road down the Carson river, through Churchill county, thence easterly, making a juncture with the proposed road from Utah, connecting with the Tahoe road, through Lake Valley, via Fall Leaf Lake, thence down the western slope to Placerville to a junction with the Sacramento Valley road, passing through one of the grand scenic routes on the coast. The tourist travel to the mountains and Lake Tahoe would be controlled, picnicking parties from Sacramento and adjacent towns could spend the day at the lake, returning to their homes in the evening; besides, as a winter route, it would seldom if ever be blocked with snow and would not require the extensive tunneling and sheding necessary on some of the routes proposed. Of course Carson has a right to build railroads on paper, so Reno need not get agitated; but it would be a good weapon to shake at the S. P. when they intimate running around Washoe county, reaching California via Beck with pass, abandoning the road from Wadsworth to Colfax, thereby leaving Reno on the side.

THE MINT.

Is still running with full force and full time, but as the 1st of July draws near there is some speculation as to what the program will be after that date. Most of the rumors and information come from outsiders who know little or nothing. There is no definite knowledge or information that coinage will be suspended, and there is as much likelihood that the Mint will continue on subsidiary silver and gold coin after the above date as that it will be closed. No one has any authority to state otherwise and no one knows.

THE INDIAN SCHOOL.

Is progressing, but the force has been reduced through lack of funds, but it is presumed that matters will go on about as usual, and a proper appropriation will be made to square matters at the next meeting of Congress.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

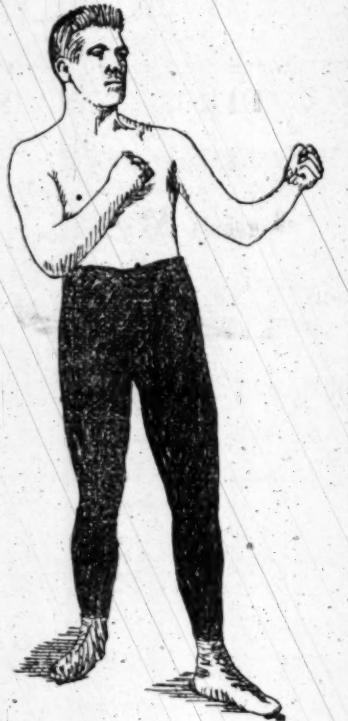

Are few, the efforts during the Legislative session seeming to have been too much for the Carsonites, and as it was a kind of "loves labor lost proposition," and as there were no marriage compacts made or courtships begun, nor even a respectable scandal, there seems to be a "dormant carishness" feeling, and the "circle" has fallen into a state of ennui that is hardly commensurate with the elevated ideas of the society town of the State. Elaborate preparations are being made for the

DECORATION DAY CEREMONIES.

At which time the beautiful monument erected by the Grand Army Post here will be unveiled. A splendid program has been arranged and will be carried out to the letter. It is expected that there will be delegations from a number of the adjoining towns, and they propose to make it a day to be remembered. XXX.

THE JACKSON-CORBETT MILL.

The Gladiators Will Test Their Endurance, Skill and Grit Tonight. The California Athletic Club rooms in San Francisco will present an animated scene to-night when the two giants, Peter Jackson, the colored pugilist, will test his strength with Jim Corbett, the Californian, in the prize ring. Both men are said to be in the pink of condition, and both are confident, apparently, of proving himself the best man. They are both being sized up extensively by the sports who seem to be in doubt where to place their money, and no better criterion of the glorious uncertainties in which the contest abounds can be found than the extremely careful manner in which sports who usually bet their money on such occasions are acting. To-morrow's GAZETTE will contain full details of the great fight, and in the meantime the public will have to be satisfied with but little. The two cuts published to-day are good likenesses of Corbett and Jackson, in fighting trim, as they appeared at the close of their work Tuesday evening.

Jim Corbett.

Run Over at Pyramid.

Dr. Phillips was summoned to Pyramid last night to attend upon Ed. Green, a man in the employ of Wm. Calligan, who fell from a loaded six-horse wagon, the wheels of which run over him and lacerated the flesh of the calf and thigh in a frightful manner. Dr. Phillips left Reno about 8:30 o'clock last night and will not return until this evening.

Lodge Notice.

A called communication of the Reno Lodge No. 13, F. & A. M., will be held at Masonic Hall, Reno, on Saturday evening, May 23d, for work on the Third Degree. All Master Masons in good standing are invited to be present.

A Miner Missing.

The Salt Lake Tribune says: Robert Nelson, familiarly known among mining men as Bob Nelson, has disappeared in such a manner as to leave little if any doubts about his body being in a snowslide in Big Cottonwood. He had a lease on the Prince of Wales mine, and was spending the winter at the mine alone. He was in the city last February about the time of the snowslide in Little Cottonwood canyon, when several men were caught. Since then he has not been seen.

A Sea-sick Passenger.

On the ocean, care is taken of a storm. He is positively indifferent whether he is washed overboard or not. But, set right by a wineglassful or two of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, he feels renewed interest in his personal safety. This sea-cure neutralizes drunk on shipboard, to the grievous detriment of health—the pernicious impurities which give rise to disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. To the mariner, the tourist, the Western pioneer and miner, the Bitters is invaluable as a means of protection against malaria, when its seeds are latent in air and water. To the effects of overwork, mental or manual, it is a most reliable antidote, and to the debilitated and nervous, it affords great and speedily felt relief and vigor.

RAINBOW SOCIAL.

A Large Crowd Pleasantly Entertained at Armory Hall. The rainbow social given by the ladies of the Congregational Church at Armory Hall last night drew out a very fair sized crowd, which would have been larger had not the rain storm interfered. The hall was given a very cheerful appearance by the different colored booths, eight in number, representing all the colors of the rainbow, with one, a combination of all, with the American flag and a large collection of blooming house plants thrown in. The young lady attendants were attired in dresses colored to match the booth that each group attended, and with winning smiles cajoling the young men into the purchase of the articles sold. The program was an interesting selection of songs and recitations by amateurs and volunteers, and, assisted by the music of Fredrick & Barlow's orchestra, furnished entertainment for the visitors until a late hour. This evening will be the last one of the rainbow social.

PERSONALS.

Col. E. D. Boyle came down from Virginia last evening.

A. L. Shinn of Susanville was a passenger for San Francisco last night.

J. R. Withington came up from San Francisco this morning and went to Carson.

Judge Belknap with his wife and daughter arrived from San Francisco this morning and went on home to Carson.

J. A. Blossom of Battle Mountain arrived from there with his daughter last evening and went to Virginia this morning. They will go to San Francisco this evening.

Lumber Making Increasing.

Talk is going around about several new mills up the river. Men who know the country best say a mill at the north of Donner would command an immense amount of timber which could be gotten out very cheaply.

Parties are trying to make terms with the owners of the timber and get hold of power to run a mill.

The Storm.

Rain fell at intervals nearly all last night in Reno, and in the mountains surrounding on the north and west a light coat of snow was visible this morning. This morning was cloudy and appearances indicated more rain.

WHY DID HE GO?

A St. Louis Merchant's Trip to the Postoffice, and the Result. California's last sensation is beginning to take hold of St. Louis. J. V. S. Barrett, the commission merchant of 122 and 124 North Commercial Street, was one of the first to try Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla in sick headaches. Its effect was such a gratifying surprise that he went over to the postoffice and told his friend, Thos. P. Cullen, sm't of the registry division, who was also worried with headaches. The following letter details his friend's experience also:—

POSTOFFICE ST. LOUIS, Feb. 20, 1890. DEAR SIR: You ask me, Did I act on your advice? I did, and have to thank you. For years I have suffered from indigestion and headaches. Taking your advice, I purchased a bottle of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Before I had finished it I could eat almost anything with impunity, and have been since rarely troubled with a headache of any kind, for which I give due credit to your advice and Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Yours, etc., THOS. P. CULLEN, Sup't Registry Division, Postoffice.

Their Only Medicine Chest. Wm. W. B. Miller, Deer Lodge, Montana, writes: "I have been using Brandreth's Pills for the last thirteen years, and though I have had nine children, I have never had a doctor in the house except three times, when we had an epidemic of scarlet fever, which we soon banished with a vigorous use of Brandreth's Pills. I have used them for myself, two or three for a month, for liver complaint, dyspepsia and constipation. In diarrhoea, cramps, wind colic, indigestion, one or two Brandreth's Pills fixed the children at once. A box of pills is all the medicine chest we require in the house. We use them for rheumatism, catarrh, colds, biliousness and impure blood. They never have failed to cure all the above complaints in a very few days."

The Problem Solved.—An Unrivalled Blood Purifier. Found at last in Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup.—A remedy which expels all poisons from the system and cures disease from the blood. A well known citizen of West Lebanon, Ind., testifies to its value.

GENTLEMEN: It affords me pleasure to state that my wife has received greater benefit from Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup than from any medicine she has ever taken. We have used six bottles, and find it the best family remedy and the greatest blood purifier we have ever used. It is truly all I am claimed to be by its founder. You cannot recommend it to highly. Yours truly, FRANK WALLACE, West Lebanon, Ind.

MYSTERIOUS POISONS.

The True Stories About Them More Wonderful Than Fiction.

Interesting Descriptions of the Poisonous Trees and Plants of the Indian Islands—Strange Effects of Nitrobenzine.

Not long since a daily newspaper contained a paragraph dated New London, Conn., which told how a farmer and his wife were overpowered by the noxious fumes of a stick of poison alder which had been thrown into the kitchen stove, and how a physician had a hard struggle to save their lives.

A New York Sun reporter showed it to a well-known toxicologist, who has made the study of toxicology a specialty, and asked him whether there could possibly be any truth in it. Here is what the professor says:

"Young man, take out your note book, sit down and listen, and I will tell you something about a subject that the public knows less about than any other in the world. That story isn't true, and nothing like it ever was true, or ever will be true. It is of exactly the same character as the following myths which I am going to relate to you.

"On the island of Java grows the boman upas tree, which owes its notoriety to Foersch, a surgeon in the employ of the Dutch East India Company, who, nearly a hundred years ago, told some wonderful stories about it. He related how the emanations of this tree killed all animals that approached it, how the birds that flew too near fell dead; how criminals that were condemned to death were allowed to collect leaves from the tree, and that only two out of twenty ever returned; how it grew in a valley, with no tree or plant within ten miles of it, all being a barren waste, strewn with human and other bones.

It was a beautiful story, and the world believed it. Scientists discovered in 1810 that the upas was a very poisonous tree, whose effects were similar to those of poison ivy.

"Next is the manchineel, a poisonous evergreen tree which grows in the West India islands. This tree was said to be even more deadly than the upas, and it was generally supposed that a drop of its juice falling upon the skin had the same effect as the application of a red-hot iron. The milky juice of this tree is undoubtedly highly poisonous, but such stories as the above are highly exaggerated. This poison, like our poison sumac, affects some persons more seriously than others. It is said that the smoke from burning manchineel wood produces temporary blindness. This is true in a measure, though it does not effect every one in the same way. Berthold Seemann, the botanist, was blind for a few days after he had gathered some of the leaves of the tree on the coast of Florida, and some of the crew were blind for nearly a week from having made a fire of the wood.

"Dramatists, as a rule, do not know the first thing about poisons. Nathaniel Lee, in his tragedy of Alexander, makes one of his characters administer a poison to the conqueror of the world, which "Mixed with his wine, a single drop gives death, And sends him howling to the shades below.

"And swallowing this terrible mixture, Alexander goes through the latter part of the fourth and most of the fifth act, kills a man, makes a fine speech, raves wildly, recovers his senses, and, after a fine dying address, goes off. Now, there isn't a poison in the world which can produce such an effect. There is a poison, little known to playwrights, which has a much more wonderful effect than this, but very few people know anything about it. After it is swallowed the person walks about for a time varying from half an hour to two hours, then his skin, and even the whites of his eyes, become of a strange purplish, livid color. He may feel perfectly well, when suddenly acute pain will set in, and in a few moments he dies. This effect is produced by nitrobenzine.

"Then there is Philip Massinger, who, in his play, 'The Duke of Milan,' shows that he doesn't know the first thing about toxicology. One of the characters scatters a poisonous powder over a flower, which is afterward given to a female. Some of the powder falls on her hand, and when her lover salutes the tips of her fingers he dies. Pure acetonite itself, the most powerful of all known vegetable poisons, would hardly produce that effect.

"The most powerful and deadly poison in the world and at the same time the oldest one known to mankind, is prussic acid. To illustrate its antiquity: An Egyptian papyrus preserved at the Louvre, 'Pro-nounce not the name of J. A. O. under the penalty of the peach.' The only poison which can be distilled from the peach is prussic acid, so that it must have been known to the Egyptian. A knight in the reign of Tiberius, accused of high treason, swallowed poison and fell dead at the feet of the emperor. No poison but prussic acid, and that only in a concentrated state, would have had this effect. The prussic acid that is sold in drug stores is only diluted stuff, containing a small percentage of the real acid. Pure prussic acid is made only in chemical laboratories, and is so powerful that were a person to inhale the fumes arising from it in one good whiff he would drop dead.

"Another interesting poison is the dhatooa of the Hindoos, a species of belladonna which these people administer to persons of high rank to produce imbecility. It is distilled from the seeds of the common thorn apple, which grows so plentifully in New Jersey as it does in India.

When the Earth Was Young

When the earth was young, says Dr. Ball, astronomer royal for Ireland, it went around so fast that the day was only three hours long. The earth was liquid then, and as it spun around and around, at that fearful speed, and as the sun caused ever increasing tides upon its surface, it at last burst in two. The smaller part became the moon, which has been going around the earth ever since at an increasing distance. The influence of the moon now rises tides on the earth, and while there was any liquid to operate on in the moon, the earth returned the compliment.

DESCENT OF THE BARINGS.

History of a Great Commercial Family Extending Through Centuries.

Two centuries ago there lived at Bremen, in Germany, a pastor of the Lutheran church named Franz Baring, or Baring. In those days, says Spare Moments, the ministers of his order might be men of great learning, but their circumstances were at the best moderate. His son, John Baring, went to England and established himself as a clothmaker near Exeter, in Devonshire. From the ranks of the cloth drapers and the linen drapers, quite as often as from among the goldsmiths, the merchants and bankers were then recruited. John Baring's son, Francis, born in 1740, was sent at an early age to learn the "art, trade and mystery" of a merchant, and before he died he made himself, by consent, the first merchant in the world.

He was a director in the Honorable East India Company, then one of the highest rewards to which a merchant might hope to attain; for a time he was the great company's chairman; for twenty-two years he sat in parliament, then a far more exclusive body than has become under the extended suffrage; in 1810 he died. But his first title to fame was that he founded the house of Barings. His sons were the first Baring brothers.

Princesses Mobbed.

When the Princess of Wales staid for several weeks at Torquay, five years ago, as the guest of the late Duchess of Sutherland, her daughters were so ferociously mobbed whenever they appeared in the streets that they were literally hunted out of the town. The Duchess of Edinburgh had a similar experience of British snobbery at Plymouth, as, having driven into the town, accompanied by the duke, their carriage was surrounded wherever they stopped by a staring, chattering crowd of the so-called "renty," and it was followed from place to place with amazing pertinacity. The duke and duchess are not likely to attempt any more shopping in Plymouth after the annoyance to which they were subjected.

A Deluge of Doctors.

More than 100,000 medical students have graduated during the past two years in the United States, and are now looking for business in that line. The number seems out of all proportion to a medical journal, which declares that 100,000 in a single year can be turned out to make a fair living, as the population advances in the same ratio.

"German Syrup"

For Coughs & Colds.

John F. Jones, Edom, Tex., writes: "I have used German Syrup for the past six years, for Sore Throat, Cough, Colds, Pains in the Chest and Lungs, and let me say to anyone wanting such a medicine—German Syrup is the best."

B. W. Baldwin, Carnesville, Tenn., writes: "I have used your German Syrup in my family, and find it the best medicine I ever tried for coughs and colds. I recommend it to everyone for these troubles."

R. Schmalhausen, Druggist, of Charleston, Ill., writes: "After trying scores of prescriptions and preparations I had on my files and shelves, without relief for a very severe cold, which had settled on my lungs, I tried your German Syrup. It gave me immediate relief and a permanent cure."
